KILL'EM ALL

A TRIBUTE TO METALLICA

KEVIN HUGHES

VOCALS / RHYTHM GUITAR

Kevin is the original founder of the band from 2011 and has been in every iteration of the band. Kevin has been playing guitar for nearly 40 years and started singing in the early 1990s.

AKA "James / Papa Het"

METALLICA TRIBUTE BAND FROM PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Kill 'Em All was formed in 2011 by Kevin Hughes. At the time, Kevin noticed that Phoenix had plenty of tribute bands but no one was doing Metallica. He sought to remedy that by forming Kill 'Em All. Their first show was August 5th, 2011 at Joe's Grotto. Over the years Kill 'Em All has played many shows with popular bands such as Saxon and The Iron Maidens. In 2019, line up changes sidelined the band before the pandemic shut down live music through out 2020. In 2021 Kill 'Em All started playing shows again. Recent shows include venues such as The 44, Sage & Sand, Cactus Jacks, SanTan Brewing Co. and opening for the Atomic Punks at The Marquee in Tempe, AZ.

Kill 'Em All is a tribute to the thrash era of Metallica, encompassing the music released on their legendary albums from 1983 through 1991, as well as a few select cuts from later years (see page 4 for a sample list).

BOBBY ALEXANDER

LEAD GUITAR

From Hanger 18 to Devil Went Down To Georgia, there is no guitar job too small or too large. Putting the Thrash back into Thrash Metal since 1987 – “RIDE THE LIGHTNING!”

AKA “The Kirkster”

TAD WELDON

BASS GUITAR

Born 1970
Southern California
Stole his first Metallica album when he was 12.
Just kidding. Sort of.
Has way too many influences to list. But has a definite love for metal.

AKA “Cliff ‘Em All”

RANDY OMDAHL

DRUMS

Randy joined the band in 2017, although he has played with Kevin in previous projects over the past 20+ years. Has played drums since age 11 and incorporates thrash/prog/doom/power metal influences in his playing style.

AKA “Lars-inator”
